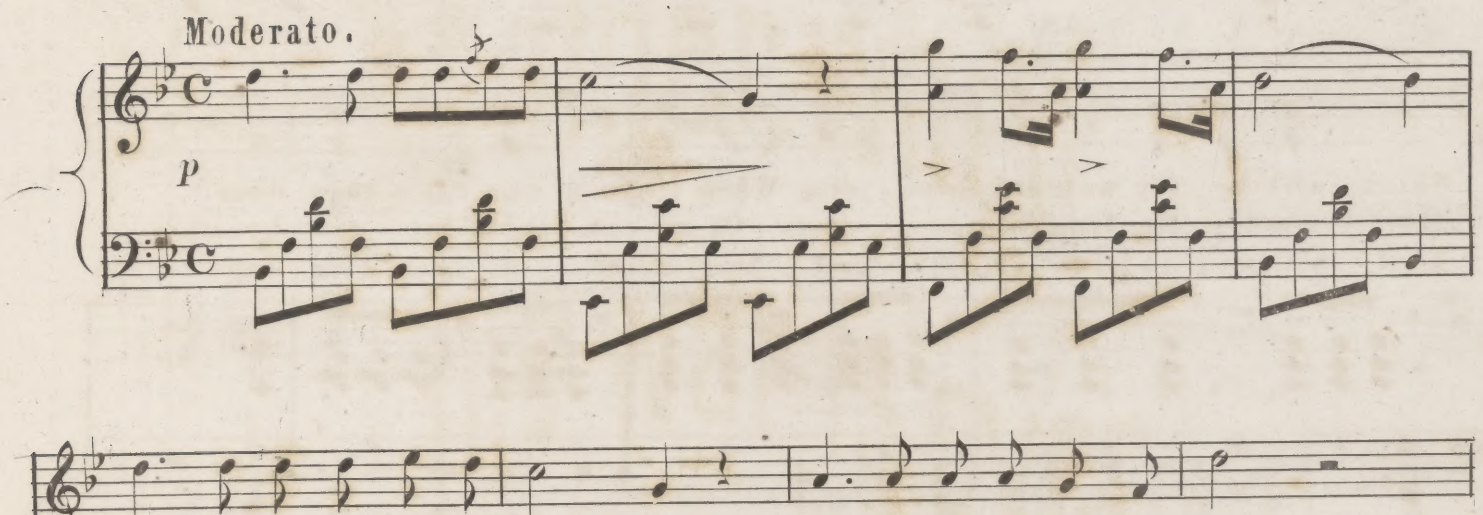
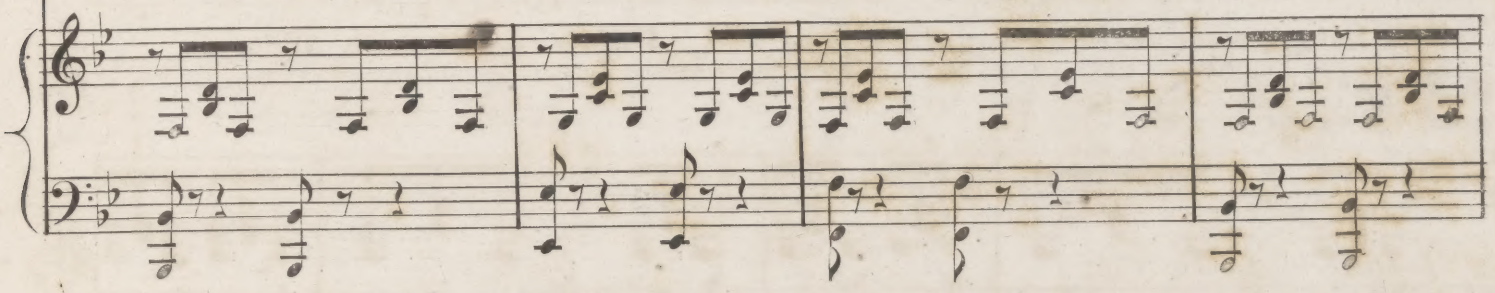
MOTHER, WHEN THE WAR IS OVER.

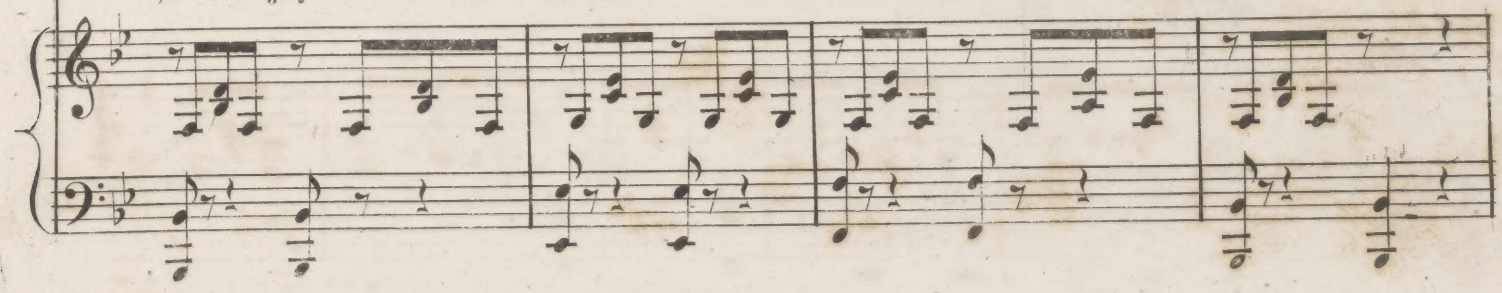
Words and Music by J. W. TURNER.



1. Moth - er, when the war is o - ver, And I'm home again with thee,
2. Moth - er, when the war is o - ver, Then I'll tell thee how they died,
3. Moth - er, when the war is o - ver, And our land is bright a - gain,



How my heart will beat with rap - ture When thy loving smile I see;
Those who were my boyhood com rades, Those that per ished by my side:
O, what joy will be a - round us In our great and loved do main



Then will come the happy moments, Such as we have seen before,
How they spoke of home and loved ones, Ere their eyes we closed in death, —
If once more we are u - ni - ted, Kindred heart and kindred hand,

Sweet will be thy welcome bles - sing When I reach our cot - tage door.
Moth - er, dear, the ling'ring ac - cents Of my com - rades lat - est breath,
Soul with soul in bliss delight - ed, Sweet will be our na - tive land.

Moth - er, when the war is o - ver, And I'm home again with thee,
Moth - er, &c.
Moth - er &c.

How my heart will beat with rap - ture When thy lov - ing smile I see;
